Dear Sir

I have this day sent off a brown paper parcel containing the above articles. I shall be glad to know the exact day that it arrives at Edgeworths town as it is an experiment to see what time the Liverpool conveyance takes. The shawl & the box from Lady Romilly were delivered to Mr Lovell E who set off last week. The third volume of Harriots Struggles was taken over by Major Edgeworth who promised to deliver it safe. The Philosophical Magazine for June was sent under cover to Sir E. B. L as was the french play.

¹ Louis-Pierre Anquetil, L'esprit de la Ligue, ou histoire politique des troubles de la France pendant les XVIe et XVIIe siècles (Paris, 1767)

[fol.29v]
